WRIT PETITION No. 18459 of 2007

O R D E R: (Per the Hon'ble Smt. Justice T. Meena Kumari)

This writ petition is filed against the order dated 3.8.2004 passed by the A.P. Administrative Tribunal in O.A. No. 9907 of 2002.

Heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

This is a case where the petitioner was appointed as an Attender in the Irrigation Department at Anantapur on compassionate grounds basing on the certificate of qualification produced by his father. However, subsequently the same was found to be bogus and therefore the petitioner was issued with a show-cause notice and subsequently he was terminated vide proceedings dated 17.10.2002. The case of the petitioner is that he, in fact, possesses the required qualification and inadvertently his father produced the certificate issued to him which belongs to another person of the same name and that his date of birth was wrongly entered in the Transfer Certificate and the same was stated by him before the enquiry conducted by the Mandal Revenue Officer, Anantapur on 12.2.1982 and after satisfying about the M.R.Os report only he was appointed as Attener. It is the further case of the petitioner that no enquiry was conducted on the explanation submitted by the petitioner and that the respondents have considered the case of others who are similarly appointed on compassionate grounds.

Having regard to the fact that this is a case relating to appointment on compassionate grounds and having regard to the submission that the similarly situated persons have been considered earlier, this writ petition is disposed of directing the petitioner to make a representation to the respondents within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and as and when such representation is made, the respondents are directed to consider and dispose of the same as expeditiously as possible in accordance with law without being influenced by the observations in the order passed by the Tribunal.
